Grandma's Like

Grandma, you remind me of a beautiful flower spreading its petals to reach the sun. With every obstacle you are growing and growing more each day. You are like the ocean, calm and relaxed, which is gliding back and forth. You are like the moon shimmering down on the world, along with sapphires in the crystal clear night. You are the spirit of good nature and truth. You are my close friend.

With Love, April Rose Mologianes 05-13-2007
