

Mary A. Jensen

01/25/1937 - 08/19/2022

Mary A. Jensen, age 85, of Neenah, was called home to her Savior on Friday, August 19, 2022, following a brief illness.

She was born on January 25, 1937, in Neenah, the daughter of the late Harold and Esther (Zill) Dordel. In 1955, Mary graduated from Neenah High School. On November 17, 1956, Mary married William Jensen at Trinity Lutheran Church where she continued to be a very faithful member. She loved gardening, especially pruning, just being outdoors and staying busy with everything including chores around the house. Together they never missed any event of their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren and offered their help for anything going on in any of their lives. She enjoyed going for rides, playing Rummy, working on word search puzzles, and getting together with her Class of '55 friends for lunch monthly. She also enjoyed listening to her Polka Music on Saturday and Sunday mornings. Mary was fondly known as the Pumpkin Lady for their hobby every fall.

Mary's greatest joy came in spending time with her family, especially her 11 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. She looked forward to having visitors and always had some sort of treat or snack to share no matter the time of day.
