In 1988 Donna married Roger A. Laabs II, and together they raised their son, Roger A. Laabs III along with her two sons, Jeff and Troy Kettlewell. She worked side by side with her husband on their farm. They also ran her lil' gift shop, The Farmers Wife Country Store, which she truly loved every day. Donna really enjoyed visiting with her customers in her country store. Donna was a member of St. Mary Catholic Church in Omro, where she also taught religion.

Donna loved her family most of all, her family was her life. She was a great mom, grandma, wife and a special friend to many. "If I'm going to heaven (where else would I go?) I'll see if I have a bit of pull so you get what you want. Till we meet again, hopefully not soon, remember that I love you all." Love, Mom

"Remember to live each day as if it is your last because, by golly, some day it just might be."
